CALL TO WORSHIP

This here is not a safe place,

and we are not called to be a safe people.

The Spirit of God moves swiftly, unpredictably, beyond our expectations.

Who knows what God will teach us? Who knows what God will ask of us?

The Spirit led Jesus down a path of radical love that ended in his death,

and we are both invited and compelled to follow him.

We follow together, trembling hand in trembling hand,

guided by the God of love as we work towards justice and peace.

WE CONFESS OUR SINS

CALL TO CONFESSION

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

O Lord, if you held our sin against us, who could stand? We seem to have more faith in death than hope in your promise of life. We seek peace through war and find security in weapons. We abandon the hungry, sick, and dying, and pursue wealth by making others poor. And even so, you love us; still, there is forgiveness with you. Therefore, we worship you, for you alone, O Lord, can save us from death and redeem us from our sin. Amen.

RESPONDING TO THE WORD

*HYMN

O God of Earth and Altar

PH 291

*AFFIRMATION OF FAITH (From PC(USA)'s "A Declaration of Faith" (1977))

We are certain that Jesus lives. He lives as God with us, touching all of human life with the presence of God. He lives as one of us with God. Because he shares our humanity and has bound us to himself in love, we have an advocate in the innermost life of God. We declare that Jesus is Lord. His resurrection is a decisive victory over the powers that deform and destroy human life. His lordship is hidden. The world appears to be dominated by people and systems that do not acknowledge his rule. But his lordship is real. It demands our loyalty and sets us free from the fear of all lesser lords who threaten us. We maintain that ultimate sovereignty now belongs to Jesus Christ in every sphere of life. Jesus is Lord. He has been Lord from the beginning. He will be Lord at the end. Even now he is Lord.

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
